three ways to contribute to Eckstein Middle School

...join the PTSA

PTSA
PARENT TEACHER STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The PTSA is an all-parent volunteer organization that serves as a liaison between the Eckstein Middle School community and the school. Its volunteers:

- keep parents informed of school activities and events through the publication of the Ecko newsletter and e-mail
- coordinate special events such as project REACH, 8th grade promotion, 6th and 7th grade special events, guest speakers and informational meetings
- support teachers, staff and students by reviewing and administering mini-grants
- organize first-day packets, school picture day, teacher appreciation, school tours
- keep parents informed about legislative issues

ASB
ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

The ASB is a student organization that raises money for optional, non-credit, extra-curricular student activities. These activities are:

- cultural: arts, drama, and music events or assemblies
- athletic: school sports and team spirit activities
- recreational: field trips, activity days, school spirit days

All of the fall magazine sale profits go to the ASB.

EAC
ECKSTEIN ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

The EAC is Eckstein Middle School's fundraising organization. It devotes its efforts to enhancing the academic experience of all students and focuses on curriculum and building needs. Look for the EAC mailing in October. Your donation will help pay for classroom supplies, books and student and staff support for:

- math
- science
- world languages
- language arts
- the library
- the computer lab
- art
- instrumental music
- building needs

All donations to EAC go to Eckstein Middle School.
